

Frequently Asked Questions

My community doesn't have a Dillons Food Store. Can I participate in the Neighbor to Neighbor food drive?

Yes! If there is not a Dillons Food Store in your community or county, we encourage you to start your own Neighbor to Neighbor food drive at one of the following locations:

- Local FFA chapter
- Local elementary school
- County locations, such as extension or Farm Bureau offices

Contact the food bank servicing your region (map attached) to request a food drop box at any listed location.

- Harvesters–The Community Food Network: Amy Pinger, 785-861-7750 or fighthunger@harvesters.org
- Kansas Food Bank Warehouse: Debi Kreutzman, 316-265-3663 or info@kansasfoodbank.org
- Second Harvest Community Food Bank: Michelle Fagerstone, 816-364-3663 or info@ourcommunityfoodbank.org

Can I donate online?

Yes. Visit ksn2n.harvestersvfd.org and select your area. Donations will be distributed according to donor location.

What resources are available for teachers to incorporate Kansas Agriculture Day into the classroom?

Visit the Ag Day website at agriculture.ks.gov/ksagcelebrations to view a variety of school resources for Kansas Agriculture Day this year. You will find a list of lesson plan resources, a variety of resources and classroom activities from Kansas agriculture organizations, and recommendations for hosting an Ag Day event in the classroom.

Who should I contact if I have questions?

Contact the Kansas Department of Agriculture at kda.events@ks.gov or 785-564-6700 with any questions.
