nationwide for education and outreach. NRCS has requested an additional $20 million for EQIP.

- ii. Susan Metzger (KSU, KCARE) had no further updates.
 - iii. Terry Medley (KDA, DWR) informed the commissioners that he will share the SCC report when final. The peer review on site portion is complete. A new flood plain map will be out in 90 days. Budget season is in full swing. CAP and CGP grants have gone up. With IRA, dam safety went down $50,000. There are three open dam safety positions.
 - iv. Peter Tomlinson (KSU Research & Extension) asked the commissioners if the SCC meetings could again be scheduled for the year in advance at the KACD Convention. The ground-breaking for a new modernized research and innovation center for the agronomy department took place in May. Grain science is also getting new facilities. A $2 million climate smart commodity grant will focus on nutrient management for grain sorghum hydrogen management. A $2 million grant for the Foundation for food and agriculture research will give energy around sorghum nitrogen research management. The goal is to have eight to twelve sites a year for the next four years.
- c. DOC Staff Updates:
- i. Andrew Lyon informed the commissioners the next commission meetings would be held on August 16 before the Ag Summit in Manhattan, September 15 at the State Fair in Hutchinson, and November 19 at the KACD Convention in Wichita.
 - ii. Steve Frost informed the commissioners that he collects information from the technicians and submits a financial and narrative report twice a year. Frost recently attended the Arkansas River Water Quality Summit in La Junta, CO. Among the one hundred attendants were forty people from Kansas representing NRCS, FSA, DWR and DOC. There was a great discussion about river water quality and best conservation practices. Frost also attended a CREP Tour in Garden City where thirty-five partners met to discuss establishing and keeping grass stands in the sandy soils in the Lakin area. Colorado is offering a dry land practice under CRP involving the development of a compatible cover crop rotation with dry land farming and buffer along the river corridor and Rattlesnake Creek area. WTAP has retired two water rights over the last two years. There is potential for moving forward to other communities and playas and other high priority areas. The same bid ceiling of $2,000 has been used for 15 years. Frost suggests increasing the rate per acre foot for water right purchase in the WTAP program to $2,750 before the October 1 enrollment. There will be further discussion at the August meeting.
