

Channel Change Submittal Checklist

- Application form
- Application Fee
- Location map/ aerial photo showing:
 - The stream
 - The location of the proposed channel change
- Detailed Plan view showing
 - Pre-project alignment of the stream
 - Post-project alignment of the stream
 - Project dimension
 - Section lines
 - Property lines
 - Roads, railroads, and any other prominent features in the area
 - Location of a nearby benchmark
- If the profile of the channel will be altered
 - A profile of the center line of the pre-project and post-project channel
- Cross sections showing
 - Pre-project stream channel
 - Elevations of the top of the banks
 - Bottom of the channel
 - Side slopes
 - Post-project stream channel
 - Elevation of the top of the banks
 - Bottom of the channel
 - Side slopes
- Easements if project impact is outside owner's property
- Statement on how excavated material will be disposed of
- Hydraulic analysis if flow area is diminished

Plans must be prepared by licensed professional engineer for streams having a mean annual flow of 100cfs or more.

